Recommendation #4 - Death benefits when no dependants

Provide death benefits such as a one-time payment to the estate of a deceased worker who has no dependents, no parents or who has parents, no dependent child.

Status update – Ongoing. This recommendation did not lead to proposed legislative amendment. Burial expenses are already covered by the WCB regardless of whether there are dependants. This recommendation contradicted the purposes of the workers' compensation system by providing a financial award without dependants to support.

Recommendation #6 - Excluded industries and occupations.

Review section 3 of the Regulations to update industries and occupations currently included or excluded from the Act that should be considered for inclusion.

Status update – Ongoing. Analysis of opportunities has begun. A roadmap will be developed in Q1 2026 to tackle this recommendation in a systematic way.

Recommendation #7 - Excluded industries and occupations.

Encourage employers to advise workers employed in the excluded occupations that they are not covered by the provisions of the Act.

Status update – Ongoing. A future state risk-based service delivery model is under development. Services may include education, support, and partnership to support customers' understanding of their rights and obligations. A new, proactive Education and Compliance Assessment has been developed and is being piloted with 3-5 employers in Q4 2025. Communications options will be explored in Q1 2026.

Recommendation #9- Youth safety programs

Encourage the continuation of safety programs for youth and to be made available throughout high schools in Saskatchewan. The safety associations should be involved in joint efforts with WorkSafe Saskatchewan and the Saskatchewan Safety Council in these youth safety programs.

Status Update – Ongoing. WCB prevention engaged partners to participate in the development of a New Worker Program – a provincial approach to young/new worker injury prevention. Meetings continued in Q3 2025. A coordinated approach including the WCB, safety associations, Saskatchewan Safety Council, and Saskatchewan Federation of Labour will gain further alignment in 2025 and document a coordinated-provincial approach to reduce duplication and address emerging gaps/opportunities. Targeting the complete development of the New Worker Program in Q1 2026.

Recommendation #13- Out of province – psychological injury treatment

Fund out of province treatment options when recommended by a medical practitioner for public safety personnel with psychological injuries who have no specific medical programs to access in Saskatchewan.

Status update - Ongoing. WCB currently considers out of province treatment options when the recommended care is not available in Saskatchewan. This is not limited to public safety personnel. Opportunities for occupational awareness training for mental health providers was offered in 2024 and planned for again in 2025. In Q3 2025, WCB leadership met with healthcare providers to explore continuous improvement opportunities. In Q4 2025, WCB leadership is planning to meet with the Saskatchewan Ministry of Health to explore partnership opportunities.

Recommendation #18 - Customer Service training

Provide enhanced customer service training to staff which includes how to show compassion and understanding, how to listen, and how to deal with people who are experiencing difficult life situations and who may not get approval for an injury claim.

Status Update - Ongoing. Throughout 2023 and 2024, WCB rolled out a comprehensive training program that focused on upskilling claims staff in a variety of areas to improve communication, collaboration and customer relationships. Topics include mindset shifts, building relationships, leading the customer experience, goal setting and attainment, trauma informed practice, customer awareness, effective communication, conflict resolution, motivational interviewing, proactive communication, work recovery planning, and collaborative return to work. Opportunities to expand this training to other WCB staff are being explored for the future.

Recommendation #19 - Designated adjudicator

Create a dedicated team of adjudicators to deal with specific employers who submit a large number of injury claims. Dealing with a dedicated team will improve efficiencies and communication as they would be familiar with the employer on an ongoing basis.

Status Update – Ongoing. This is currently in place for a small number of employers. Review is currently underway and enhancements being made to employers with psychological injuries in 2025. Further enhancements to be made as part of new technology solution.

Recommendation #20 - Communications – Care providers – RTW

Develop a communication strategy with the Saskatchewan Medical Association, the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and Chiropractors' Association of Saskatchewan on the important role of the primary practitioner in the process to help guide the injured worker to return to work including providing details on their functional abilities, restrictions, and limitations.

Status update – In 2025, WCB obtained feedback from customers and associations to understand pain points. WCB collaborated with medical consultants to define and finalize new RTW roles and responsibilities for stakeholders; an external communications plan will be developed in Q4, with implementation to begin in 2026.

Recommendation #21 - Communications – adjudication visual aids

Develop an easy-to-understand guide (the anatomy of a claim) which may include diagrams/flow charts for workers and employers to better understand the claim submission, and decision making and appeal processes within the Saskatchewan WCB.

Status update - Ongoing. Appeals process video developed and implemented on the Employer Advisory Centre (EAC). The EAC will continue to develop training modules in 2025-26, with the goal of developing an awareness course.

Recommendation #25 - Communications – enhancements

Enhance communication methods and tools using traditional and non-traditional formats to focus on prevention and lowering time loss rates and serious injuries. These communication methods need to be directed at both the employer and the worker.

Status update – Ongoing.

- Campaigns under development to communicate psych health and safety and training resources.
- Implementation of on demand and approved training providers to expand the accessibility of WorkSafe training courses.
- New micro learns under development to implement leading indicators for health and safety.

 - Construction/ Mining (leading indicators/ contractor management)
- June 2025 FSIS report will be posted in Q4.
- A new provincial WorkSafe campaign is under development for launch in Q1 2026.

Recommendation #26 - Communications – RTW programs

Develop a communication strategy to increase the understanding and use of return to work programs with injured workers, employers and WCB case staff. Use of this program would encourage an injured worker's continuous involvement at the workplace while complying with medical restrictions during their recovery.

Status update – Ongoing. Improvements to WCB return to work processes were made in 2024, focused on increased collaboration between, workers, employers, the WCB and health care providers. Return to work training for employers was developed and piloted, delivery begins in Q3/Q4 2025. WCB leadership obtained feedback on campaign messaging from an Employer Association in Q3.

Recommendation #29 - Communications – Care providers

Work with the Saskatchewan Medical Association and the Chiropractors' Association of Saskatchewan to create a better understanding for the primary practitioner on the importance of providing proper documentation in the medical assessment of the injured worker when they first present themselves.

Status update – Ongoing. This work is ongoing and will be completed in concert with work planned under recommendation 20. Care providers roles and responsibilities were finalized and reviewed with WCB medical consultants. New offer of modified duties form was finalized and reviewed with the WCB medical consultants. A plan is being developed to communicate the role and responsibilities and test the new offer of modified duties form in 2025.

Recommendation #31 - WCB Board Member

Future appointments to the Saskatchewan WCB Board need to consider a more diverse selection of individuals to create a better representation of the Saskatchewan workforce.

Status update - At the discretion of the Minister and Government.

Recommendation #32 - WCB Board Members

Maintain the current model for the Board Appeal Tribunal as an internal structure within the Saskatchewan WCB.

Status update - No changes required at this time.
