

Service fees and fee codes for Saskatchewan WCB primary occupational therapy service providers

When the WCB indicates a prorated fee, the provider must bill using the major portion thereof method. At least half of the minimum time stated in the code must have elapsed for the provider to bill the additional unit.

For all time-based fee codes, the chart notes must include start and end times. The WCB retains the right to audit the records and invoices of health-care providers who have provided services to a WCB customer.

- There is a collective minimum of 20 minutes and up to 60 minutes per day as indicated in the fee codes identified by an asterisk.
- There is a collective weekly limit of 120 minutes per calendar week for workers working full hours (excluding treatment time) as indicated in the fee codes identified by an asterisk.
- There is a collective weekly limit of 180 minutes for workers not back to full hours (excluding treatment time) in the workplace as indicated in the fee codes identified by an asterisk.

Notes:

- ¹ Initial assessment includes treatment provided during the initial appointment. There is a maximum of six units available. The number of units should reflect the complexity of the injury.
- ² Initial and subsequent visits are inclusive of modalities and TheraBand (or similar product).
- ³ Only occupational therapists can provide services. A kinesiologist cannot bill this fee code for delegated conditioning or functional abilities evaluations, but any time they spend providing these delegated services will count toward the daily and weekly time maximums.
- ⁴ For any group conditioning containing more than one WCB claimant, the occupational therapist will randomly assign the WCB invoice to one of the WCB claimants in the group.
- ⁵ This involves attendance at the work site for the purpose of analyzing job duties or making job site modifications. The WCB permits up to two hours for reporting, with approval required for any additional reporting. The WCB only pays travel time for travel outside of the practitioner's usual municipality of work. The WCB will only pay the Public Service Commission mileage rate for out-of-town travel (requires authorization of insurer prior to incurring travel costs).
- ⁶ This does not include calls for authorization to treat or reports on progress.
- ⁷ This includes, but is not limited to, materials such as arm rests, casts, fibreglass casts, braces, wrist supports, back supports, support stockings, truss, obesity supports and orthopaedic boots, as appropriate.
- ⁸ The health-care provider can only bill this a maximum of once per day (per client) when they are required to travel in-city to complete the requested service. They cannot combine this with out-of-town travel.
- ⁹ The WCB requires health-care providers to include destination travel details on the invoice.
